EXPLANATIONS

Filing of Chapter 11 Bankruptcy Case	A bankruptcy case under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (Title 11, United States Code) has been filed in this court by or against the debtor(s) named on the front side, and an order for relief has been entered. Chapter 11 allows a debtor to reorganize or liquidate pursuant to a plan. A plan is not effective unless confirmed by the bankruptcy court. You may be sent a copy of the plan and a disclosure statement telling you about the plan, and you might have the opportunity to vote on the plan. You will be sent notice of the date of the confirmation hearing, and you may object to confirmation of the plan and attend the confirmation hearing. Unless a trustee is serving, the debtor will remain in possession of the debtor's property and may continue to operate any business.
Creditors May Not Take Certain Actions	Prohibited collection actions are listed in Bankruptcy Code §362. Common examples of prohibited actions include contacting the debtor by telephone, mail or otherwise to demand repayment; taking actions to collect money or obtain property from the debtor; repossessing the debtor's property; and starting or continuing lawsuits or foreclosures. Under certain circumstances, the stay may be limited to 30 days or not exist at all, although the debtor can request the court to extend or impose a stay.
Meeting of Creditors	The Meeting of Creditors is scheduled for the date, time and location listed on the front side. The DEBTOR'S REPRESENTATIVE , as specified in Bankruptcy Rule 9001(5), must be present at the meeting to be questioned under oath by the trustee and by creditors OR THIS CASE MAY BE DISMISSED! Important Notes: (1) This meeting is NOT held at the court; and (2) PHOTO ID WILL BE REQUIRED for security! Creditors are welcome to attend, but are not required to do so. The meeting may be continued and concluded at a later date without further notice. The court, after notice and a hearing, may order that the United States Trustee not convene the meeting if the debtor has filed a plan for which the debtor solicited acceptances before filing the case.
Claims	A Proof of Claim is a signed statement describing a creditor's claim. PLEASE USE THE CLAIM FORM ON THE NEXT PAGE!! You may look at the schedules that have been or will be filed at the bankruptcy clerk's office. If your claim is scheduled and is not listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated, it will be allowed in the amount scheduled unless you file a Proof of Claim or you are sent further notice about the claim. Whether or not your claim is scheduled, you are permitted to file a Proof of Claim. If your claim is not listed at all or if your claim is listed as disputed, contingent or unliquidated, then you must file a Proof of Claim at the bankruptcy clerk's office by the "Deadline to File a Proof of Claim" listed on the front side, or you might not be paid any money on your claim against the debtor in the bankruptcy case and may be unable to vote on a plan. A secured creditor retains rights in its collateral regardless of whether that creditor files a Proof of Claim. Filing a Proof of Claim submits the creditor to the jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court, with consequences a lawyer can explain. For example, a secured creditor who files a Proof of Claim may surrender important nonmonetary rights, including the right to a jury trial. Filing Deadline for a Creditor with a Foreign Address: The deadlines for filing claims set forth on the front of this notice apply to all creditors. If this notice has been mailed to a creditor at a foreign address, the creditor may file a motion requesting the court to extend the deadline.
Discharge of Debts	Confirmation of the Chapter 11 plan may result in a discharge of debts, which may include all or part of your debt. See Bankruptcy Code §1141(d). A discharge means you may never try to collect the debt from the debtor except as provided in the plan. If you believe a debt owed to you is not dischargeable under Bankruptcy Code §1141(d)(6)(A), you must start a lawsuit by filing a complaint in the bankruptcy clerk's office by the "Deadline to File a Complaint to Determine Dischargeability of Certain Debts" listed on the front side. The bankruptcy clerk's office must receive the complaint and required filing fee by that Deadline.
Bankruptcy Court Clerk's Office (Document Filing, and Copies)	Any PAPER document that you file in this bankruptcy case must be filed at: U.S. Bankruptcy Court Phone: 541-431-4000 Office Hours: 9:00AM-4:30PM 405 E 8th Ave #2600 Eugene, OR 97401 You may inspect all filed documents, including the list of the debtor's property and debts and the list of the property claimed as exempt, at the bankruptcy clerk's office. A deputy clerk will make copies of paper documents for 50¢ a page (e.g., Schedules average $10). If the document is available as an electronic image, then you may make copies for 10¢ per page using a public access terminal at either court office. Written requests for copies of court documents must include a self addressed and stamped 9" x 12" envelope, a $26 search fee and the appropriate copy fee.
Internet Access, Information and Legal Advice	Court, and most case information, may also be accessed via the court's website at www.orb.uscourts.gov . For account numbers, etc. contact the debtor's attorney. Contact your OWN attorney with other questions and to protect your rights. The clerk's office staff is forbidden by law from giving legal advice!
Creditor with a Foreign Address	Consult a lawyer familiar with United States bankruptcy law if you have questions about your rights in this case.

DEFINITIONS

Secured Claim Under 11 U.S.C. §506(a)

A secured claim is one backed by a lien on property of the debtor. The claim is secured so long as the creditor has the right to be paid from the property prior to other creditors. The amount of the secured claim cannot exceed the value of the property. Any amount owed to the creditor in excess of the value of the property is an unsecured claim. Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car. A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through

An authorized signature on this proof of claim serves as an acknowledgment that when calculating the amount of the claim, the creditor gave the debtor credit for any payments received toward the debt.

7. Documents:

Offers to Purchase a Claim

Certain entities are in the business of purchasing claims for an amount less than the face value of the claims. One or more of these entities may contact the creditor and offer to purchase the claim.
